New Advisory Board.

REGINA, Nov. 6.—Dr. Brett announced yesterday that he had been called upon by the Lieut.-Governor to form a new Advisory Board and had done so by calling in Messrs. Betts of Prince Albert, Jelly of North Regina and Richardson of Wolsely. The Lieutenant-Governor had agreed to their controlling matters of territorial finance and legislation, but reserved the right to deal with the funds voted by the Federal Government for expenses of government in the Northwest. He would however consult the Advisory Board on these matters. The Federal funds for roads and bridges would be divided equally amongst the several districts by the Lieutenant Governor.

Accepts The Situation.

Dr. Brett announced for himself and colleagues that he accepted the situation as thus defined as being according to statute but reserved the right to work in favor of a change to assist in full responsibility of the Assembly in all Territorial matters. In carrying out the system laid down he hoped that himself and colleagues would not be held responsible for its imperfections but would receive the support of the House in making the best of it.

Congratulations.

Haultain replied, merrily congratulating the new Advisory Council on their taking office. The position accorded the late Advisory Council by the Lieutenant Governor was one of control of the funds derived from Federal as well as Territorial service. It was on account of his apparent desire to retrograde from that position that the late Board resigned while still retaining the confidence of the majority of the House.

Don't Want Any More.

Haultain moved that the Lieutenant-Governor be requested not to constitute Police officers justices of the peace. He charged that decisions were rendered by inferior officers of the force on instructions from superior officers. Clinkskill seconded the motion and Richardson supported Haultain's charges. Motion carried.

To Investigate.

Ross moved for a commission to investigate the charges made by Haultain.

Will Invest.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8.—An English syndicate is to invest $3,000,000 in St. Paul flour mills and breweries.

Democrats Win.

The Democrats have gained great victories in various State elections to-day. Iowa and Ohio have both returned Democrats.

The Issue.

Tariff reform was the main issue.

Will Hang.

Harvey, the Guelph wife murderer, will be hanged on the 29th inst.

Perseverance.

The Orange Association will again apply for an Act of incorporation at next session of Parliament.

Arrested.

An Englishman named Greenwood was arrested in Toronto on Saturday night on suspicion of swindling, but was quickly discharged. It is said he is identified with a high toned ranch near Edmonton.

The Gallant Colonel.

The Macleod Gazette is booming Col. Irvine for Senator.

Massacred.

Dr. Peters, German explorer in Africa, has been massacred, together with his entire party.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in all churches here.

Will Buy Them Back.

A local company is being formed to purchase Madison's band of buffalo and keep them in Manitoba. They were recently sold to an American.

Fold It Over.

Four hundred thousand dollars was paid to the Jesuits on Tuesday by the Quebec Government. The occasion was attended with great ceremony, and was witnessed by many dignitaries.

Epidemic.

Typhoid and diphtheria are epidemic in Quebec.

Elections.

The Ontario elections are expected to take place before the end of this year.

Whiskey Spilled.

Over seven thousand gallons of whiskey consigned to Riley, of the Royal Hotel, Calgary, was recently spilled by the Police. Riley is to be still further prosecuted.

Struck a Rock.

The war ship Amphion, having Stanley and party on board, struck a rock Wednesday night on her way from Victoria to Westminster. The vessel is safely docked, but is badly damaged.

A Brilliant Affair.

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—The sham fight which took place in High Park to-day was the most brilliant event in the history of the city. The affair was witnessed by over 20,000 spectators, conspicuous among whom were Sir Adolphe Caron, Minister of Militia; Sir Fred Middleton, commander of the forces in Canada. The regiments which took part were the Royal Grenadiers, the Queen's Own Rifles, the 13th of Hamilton, the Dufferin Rifles, C School and the Toronto Field Battery. The attacking force was in command of Col. Jones, Bantford, and the defence by Hon. Col. Gibson. After a struggle extending over an hour, the umpires decided it was a draw. The regiments were then reviewed by the Minister of Militia, the march past being the most brilliant manoeuvre of the day.

Destitution.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7.—The reported distress among fishermen at Torance Bay and Lower Prospect, in West Halifax, is confirmed. Nearly half the population in each village are on the brink of starvation, owing to the fishing failure in their neighborhood this season.

Defending Themselves.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—Last night was the night selected by the Provincial Government of Quebec to defend their policy in regard to the finances of the country and the legislation culminated in the Jesuits' Estates Act. Premier Mercier and the members of his Cabinet appeared before the club Nationale, and in the series of speeches touched in detail the events of the past three years. Fictitious interest was attached to the meeting, for it was expected that Mercier would make some announcement bearing on the future of the Government.

Damages.

Judge Dugas has taken action against Le Monde newspaper for $25,000 damages. The case arose in connection with the Megantic expedition for the capture of outlaw Morrison. Le Monde charged the judge with incapacity and inefficiency. The evidence has been heard, and the case taken en debite.

Off the Track.

HAMILTON, Nov. 7.—About 7 o'clock last night a special live stock train ran off the track near here, through the man in charge of the switch having set it for the wrong siding. Engineer Cain, in attempting to jump from the engine, was caught between the engine and tender and instantly killed. The fireman and brakeman, who were also on the engine, jumped and were uninjured. The engine tender and three cars ran off the track. Very little damage was done to rolling stock, or to the contents of the cars.

Ice is running thickly in the river.

Eight barrels Grapes arrived at R. T. Goodfellow's.

Mr. and Mrs. Slater, Island Lake, were in town yesterday.

Mayor Knowles leaves to-morrow for his old home in Toronto. He will combine business with pleasure, and is taking samples of wheat from here to hand to the Land Department for exhibition with the products of the C. P. R. experimental farms. This is a step in the right direction.

Our All-wool Grey Flannel at 25c per yard is the best in the market. F. C. Baker.

DUAL LANGUAGES.

L'Etendard says in speaking of the abolition of the French language in the Northwest Territories:—
"These people whom we have just set upon the prairie with our own money and with sacrifices of all sorts hasten to thank us for it by the most unjust outrage against us, and the most prejudicial to our nationality. The Canada that built up the C. P. R., the Canada that built up the Northwest at an immense expense was the French Canada, by more than one third."—Star.

For consummate cheek the foregoing is entitled to the cake. No one will deny to French Canada a share of the glory for acquiring the Northwest and building up the C.
P. R. Nor will any sane person deny that French Canada contributed a portion of the money required therefor. We will also grant that they may have made some sacrifices for the Northwest. But French Canada must remember that English Canada is entitled to a greater meed of honor in this connection. That English Canada paid more money and made far greater sacrifices than did the French portion of the Dominion. French Canada must also bear in mind that when the North West was acquired they were too far lacking in enterprise to colonize it.
Not so with the English. The country has been opened up and settled by them, and the French are so few in numbers that they are not represented by a member of their own nationality in the Territorial Assembly. Why, then, should they wish to saddle the country with the cost of a language which is not used and which there are very few people to use. If French Canada had settled up the Northwest and formed any considerable part of the population, their claim might be considered, but as it is, the only right they have to consideration is the sections of a statute which which should never have been enacted, and which the Northwest says must be repealed.
We can only succeed in building up a Canadian nationality by being united, and unity cannot exist where a plurality of languages and national sentiment is tolerated and fostered.

THE ASSEMBLY.

The friction which a short time ago existed between the Lieutenant-Governor and his advisors and which led to the resignation of the latter, appears to have passed away. His Honor has, it appears, made certain concessions and secured a new Advisory Council. It appears however that the same concessions were promised by the Lieut.-Governor to the late Board, but that he saw fit to repudiate these afterwards; hence the resignation. It will perhaps be out of place to criticize too severely at present the actions of His Honor, but it is quite apparent to us, as it must be to every person in the Territories, that there is something not right in our present system of local government. It is all right so long as the Lieutenant-Governor chooses to work in harmony with the representatives of the people and follow the advice of his ministers, but when he sees fit to do otherwise the case is very different and might result detrimentally to the interests of the country. The Lieut.-Governor is clothed with too much power and should be divested of some of it.
There is no sense in his having control of any portion of the public funds; that matter should be left to the Assembly. It is quite evident that a change to full responsibility in local self-government must come in the near future and the proper thing for the Federal authorities to do now is to set apart two or more new Provinces out of the Northwest Territories.

As an offset to the Eiffel tower in Paris, the Yankees are talking of digging a hole 2,000 feet deep and fitting it with lenses so as to make of it a monster telescope for the 1892 exhibition. Some of those who are boasting so much in advance of the exhibition might find such a hole a convenient refuge.

The Winnipeg Free Press says that the Mormons, aside from their revolting doctrines, are very likely not such a bad lot. It was a Kansas man who, boasting of the good qualities of his town, said that all it needed was plenty of water and good society, and was met with the retort that all Hades needed was the same.

The Conservative organs are graciously allowed by an Opposition organ to rejoice over their victory in Richelieu, because their sources of comfort are so few and dry. The Conservative must be very greedy and unreasonable who thinks he has small comfort in his party having won thirty-three bye-elections out of forty-four since the last general election for the House of Commons.

The policy of providing text books free to the pupils of the public schools is being considered in Chicago. Those who advocate the change declare that a free school system is not free when the text books are charged for. If the Chicago books are as dear as the present Minister of Education for Ontario has made those in use here, it must seriously detract from the cheapness of education.

The Edinburgh Scotsman says:—
This British Empire is not contained within the limits of these small islands. There is a Greater Britain spread over all parts of the world.
Year by year, with the growth of that Greater Britain, does the necessity that it should be understood by our statesmen increase. The Empire cannot be governed by men who know nothing of our colonies—who are perhaps as ignorant of them as that famous personage who spoke of Demerara as an island. The time may not be far distant when it will be made a test of fitness for high office at home that the candidate shall have visited our colonies, and made himself practically acquainted with them. What better training for a seat in the Imperial Cabin could there be than that the Minister has served as governor of one of our colonies.

SASKATOON.

Grading operations on the Q. L. L. & A. R. will be continued as long as weather permits. The nearest camp is within eight miles of Saskatoon. Several sub-contractors have completed their work and gone south, some to the N. W. Central R. where they have contracts.

Sergt. Montgomery, of the N. W. M. P., Prince Albert, is visiting friends here. Const. Garrison, of Prince Albert, is with his pa and ma.

Capt. Stewart's ferry boat was taken out of the river yesterday and placed in store winter quarters. The captain and his boat are very popular amongst all classes of the travelling public.

The event of the week was a social given by the proprietor of the Garden House, on Wednesday evening, to the youth and beauty of Saskatoon, when a large proportion of both turned out.

Mr. Collis, watchmaker and jeweller, with his family arrived from Moose Jaw this week, and will open an extensive business on Broadway, in the building lately vacated by Mrs. Fletcher, who has removed to larger and more commodious premises on the corner of Broadway and Main Streets.

DUCK LAKE.

From our Special Correspondent.)
Mr. J. Finlayson paid us a visit to day on his way to Prince Albert. He saw and grieved for Snake Lake and are now at Ba oche.

Latest reports from Snake Plains give following particulars of the late accident. Mrs. McNeil and Miss Maggie Finlayson were out driving near Mosley when the horse started to run, and in pulling it in one of the reins broke, drawing the horse suddenly around and upsetting the buggy. Mrs. McNeil had a leg broken and one hip dislocated; also her nose broken and face badly injured. Miss Finlayson has her arm and shoulder blade broken and shoulder dislocated. They are doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. H. Kelly, of Erinscourt, intends going out of the cattle business and devoting his whole time to horses.

The railway engineers are now near Mr. McIvor's.

Several land hunters from the Red Deer Hill country have been in town looking up land this week.

Thanksgiving Day was not generally observed here.

No passengers on the incoming mail.

Mr. W. Finlayson has been transferred to the Battleford office.

Several contracts for ties have been let in this district.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Are you disturbed at night and broken c your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures windic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone to the system. Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the U. S., and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25c a bottle.

For Jerseys, Jersey Jackets and Ulsters go to Bakers.

Some thieves broke into W. Shannon's boot and shoe store on Monday evening. They obtained entrance through the front window, and carried away about $25 worth of goods, as near as can be ascertained. Petty theft is becoming much too frequent for a town like Prince Albert. A town detachment ought to be stationed near the business portion of the town for the better protection of the public.

We have received from the Odell Type Writer Co., of Chicago, one of the type writers manufactured by them. It is an elegantly finished machine, and embraces the ornamental with the useful. We consider it much superior to any of the other low priced type writers now manufactured. The type is metal, and the impression made in writing is very clear and distinct, and is superior to a rubber type in that it does not blur and is not liable to get out of repair. It is particularly useful for mantolining; from five to ten distinct copies may be had at one writing. It is very easy to operate; any person with a few days practice will write from forty to sixty words per minute. The instrument received is now in the office of W. R. Gtun, advocate, who says he would not be without it for ten times the price. These instruments can be easily carried in a small valise and cost laid down here about $20.

Musical and Literary Festival.

The Royal Templars of Temperance of our town gave a good entertainment in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening last, which was well attended, the building being packed to its utmost capacity. Rev. Mr. Howard presided. The programme was opened by the choir after which the chairman made a speech. An instrumental duet on piano and cornet by Mrs. Shannon and Mr. Halibaus, was well rendered and deservedly endorsed. Mr. J. B. Kernaghan next amused the audience by reading about "The Naughty but Nice Church Choir." One of Prince Albert's favorites, Mr. Beeby, sang "O Girls, You Girls," in good style and brought down the house when he sang "Jones' Servant Girl" as an encore. Mr. Halibaus gave a banjo solo, which was very good. The recitation of the "Speech by Sargent Buford" by Mr. A. Strachan, was remarkably well rendered and loudly endorsed. In the second part of the programme he recited "Shamus O'Brien" in equally good style. This is Mr. Strachan's first appearance before a Prince Albert audience and we hope it will not be his last, for he is a good elocutionist. "Sailing" was well sung by Mr. Conway and endorsed. The second part of the programme opened by the choir singing "Coming by-and-by," after which Mr. Bartlett gave a piccolo solo in good style, accompanied by Mr. Knox. Mr. Stull made an appropriate address. Mr. Tessier sang "Tucy all Love Jack" in a manner which was well received showing that he is a prime favorite, and even after his singing "You Can't do It You Know" as an encore he was called on for a second encore. "Wishes and Fishes" was very sweetly sung by Miss Hill, who could not be prevailed upon to sing again although repeatedly called on. Mrs. Shannon played several accompaniments in her usual good style. The concert closed by all singing our national anthem.

SUPREME COURT.

The regular half-yearly Session of the Supreme Court, of the Judicial District of Saskatchewan, was held in the Court House on the 5th inst. His Lordship Justice McGuire on the Bench.

There was very little business to occupy the attention of the Court consequently the session was a short one.

The first case disposed of was Regina v. Macaulay, a member of the N. W. M. Police, charged with the larceny of $45 from a comrade. The prisoner was tried by the judge without a jury, and was convicted and sentenced to two years in the Manitoba Penitentiary. Jas. McKay appeared for the Crown and H. W. Newlands for the prisoner.

The only other case was that of Davis vs. McCall; replevin. Settled between the parties after the evidence was closed. Newlands for plaintiff. Brewster for defendant.

Eight barrels Grapes arrived at R. T. Goodfellow's.

Our All-wool Grey Flannel at 25c per yard is the best in the market. F. C. Baker.

BRONCHITIS CURED.

After spending Ten Winters South, was Cured by Scott's Emulsion.

The Winter after the great fire in Chicago I contracted Bronchial affections, and since then have been obliged to spend nearly every Winter South. Last November was advised to try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and to my surprise was relieved at once, and by continuing its use three months was entirely cured, gained flesh and strength and was able to stand even the Blizzard and attend to business every day.
